Name: _____
Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 1

The Diary of Anne Frank

PART A. MAKING PREDICTIONS

1. What is the setting of the play? _____
2. Using textual evidence from pg. 855, fill in the chart below by making predictions about how the setting will affect the lives of the characters. Think about how living in such a setting would contribute to conflict, relationships, lifestyle, etc. (Remember: You must use WILL in your prediction!)

SETTING FEATURE (TEXTUAL EVIDENCE)	PREDICTION (I PREDICT _____ BECAUSE_____).

Name: _____
Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 1

The Diary of Anne Frank

PART A. MAKING PREDICTIONS

1. What is the setting of the play? _____
2. Using textual evidence from pg. 855, fill in the chart below by making predictions about how the setting will affect the lives of the characters. Think about how living in such a setting would contribute to conflict, relationships, lifestyle, etc. (Remember: You must use WILL in your prediction!)

SETTING FEATURE (TEXTUAL EVIDENCE)	PREDICTION (I PREDICT _____ BECAUSE_____).

PART B. MAKING INFERENCES

Using textual evidence from pg. 857-859, fill in the chart below by analyzing what the dialogue reveals about the characters. Infer what the character is like (personality traits) or is feeling (emotions) based off what he/she says and/or does.

CHARACTER	WHAT DID HE/SHE SAY? (TEXTUAL EVIDENCE)	WHAT CAN YOU INFER? (I INFER _____ BECAUSE _____.)
MR. FRANK
MIEP
ANNE

PART B. MAKING INFERENCES

Using textual evidence from pg. 857-859, fill in the chart below by analyzing what the dialogue reveals about the characters. Infer what the character is like (personality traits) or is feeling (emotions) based off what he/she says and/or does.

CHARACTER	WHAT DID HE/SHE SAY? (TEXTUAL EVIDENCE)	WHAT CAN YOU INFER? (I INFER _____ BECAUSE _____.)
MR. FRANK
MIEP
ANNE		