

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 2, SCENE 1 (B)

The Diary of Anne Frank

Directions: In this selection Mr. Kraler brings news to the annex. This news causes each character to react in different ways. In the chart below, read the reaction in the first column. After, (1) identify the speaker of the reaction. Next, (2) identify a personality trait the reaction reveals about the character. (Be sure to provide explanation of your personality trait).

Reaction	Character	Personality Trait and Explanation
"Don't fire him! Pay him what he asks...keep him here where you can have an eye on him."
"Let's decide when the time comes"
"Sometimes I wish the end would come...whatever it is"
"Think how lucky we are! Think of the thousands dying in the war. Think of the people in concentration camps."
"...What's the good of thinking of misery when you're already miserable? That's stupid!"

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 2, SCENE 1 (B)

The Diary of Anne Frank

Directions: In this selection Mr. Kraler brings news to the annex. This news causes each character to react in different ways. In the chart below, read the reaction in the first column. After, (1) identify the speaker of the reaction. Next, (2) identify a personality trait the reaction reveals about the character. (Be sure to provide explanation of your personality trait).

Reaction	Character	Personality Trait and Explanation
"Don't fire him! Pay him what he asks...keep him here where you can have an eye on him."
"Let's decide when the time comes"
"Sometimes I wish the end would come...whatever it is"
"Think how lucky we are! Think of the thousands dying in the war. Think of the people in concentration camps."
"...What's the good of thinking of misery when you're already miserable? That's stupid!"		