

Name: _____

Date: _____

VERBALS: PARTICIPLES – ADJECTIVE REVIEW

---

Grammar Review #5

Directions: In the following sentences, circle the adjective and draw an arrow to the noun it describes. To help us practice our grammar skills, identify all parts of the sentence as well.

1. For the talent competition, the Miss America contestant balanced four ferrets on her head, hopped on one leg, and sang “We Are the World.”
2. To increase business at her new electrolysis boutique, Mabel advertised a reduced price on the removal of extra-thick back and nose hair.
3. For Thanksgiving dessert, Aunt Erma served her tasty bologna pudding with peanut M&M’s and chocolate sprinkles.
4. During the day, Barney flips burgers, and every night he earns extra cash as a speed bump.
5. In a tragic, freak baking accident, Cousin Ditsy crushed the Pillsbury Dough boy.
6. Young werewolves irritate and embarrass their parents when they braid their coarse hair into dreadlocks.

Name: _____

Date: _____

VERBALS: PARTICIPLES – ADJECTIVE REVIEW

---

Grammar Review #5

Directions: In the following sentences, circle the adjective and draw an arrow to the noun it describes. To help us practice our grammar skills, identify all parts of the sentence as well.

1. For the talent competition, the Miss America contestant balanced four ferrets on her head, hopped on one leg, and sang “We Are the World.”
2. To increase business at her new electrolysis boutique, Mabel advertised a reduced price on the removal of extra-thick back and nose hair.
3. For Thanksgiving dessert, Aunt Erma served her tasty bologna pudding with peanut M&M’s and chocolate sprinkles.
4. During the day, Barney flips burgers, and every night he earns extra cash as a speed bump.
5. In a tragic, freak baking accident, Cousin Ditsy crushed the Pillsbury Dough boy.
6. Young werewolves irritate and embarrass their parents when they braid their coarse hair into dreadlocks.