

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

SHOW, DON'T TELL! : EXAMPLE ARTICLE FEEDBACK

Writing Workshop #1

Directions: Complete the directions below in order to analyze the usage of the

STEP 1: Read the entire story one time through.

STEP 2: Read the story a second time through and identify the setting. Then, identify three pieces of textual evidence that reveal the setting. Write your responses in the chart below.

	SETTING = _____
EVIDENCE #1
EVIDENCE #2
EVIDENCE #3

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

SHOW, DON'T TELL! : EXAMPLE ARTICLE FEEDBACK

Writing Workshop #1

Directions: Complete the directions below in order to analyze the usage of the

STEP 1: Read the entire story one time through.

STEP 2: Read the story a second time through and identify the setting. Then, identify three pieces of textual evidence that reveal the setting. Write your responses in the chart below.

	SETTING = _____
EVIDENCE #1
EVIDENCE #2
EVIDENCE #3

STEP 3: Read the story a third time through and identify two emotions for Jane and two emotions for Daren. (Think: How does each character feel within the story?) Then, identify a piece of textual evidence for each emotion that reveals this emotion. Write your responses in the chart below.

	EMOTION	TEXTUAL EVIDENCE
JANE
JANE
DAREN
DAREN

STEP 3: Read the story a third time through and identify two emotions for Jane and two emotions for Daren. (Think: How does each character feel within the story?) Then, identify a piece of textual evidence for each emotion that reveals this emotion. Write your responses in the chart below.

	EMOTION	TEXTUAL EVIDENCE
JANE
JANE
DAREN
DAREN		